

Myeloproliferative Neoplasms Advances Day

(... a meeting for healthcare professionals)

Friday 18th November 2011

Living with MPDs

(... a meeting for patients, carers & nursing staff)

Saturday 19th November 2011

School of Oriental & African Studies
Thornhaugh Street, Russell Square, London WC1H 0XG

We would like to invite you to this conference for Myeloproliferative Disorders on Friday 18th and Saturday 19th November 2011 at the School of Oriental & African Studies in London.

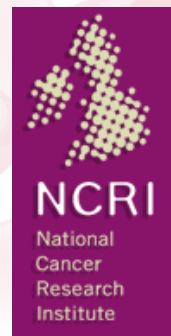

Dr Claire Harrison and Professor Mary Frances McMullin have created a full and informative programme with excellent speakers from the USA and Europe, also including many UK experts for topics in this important area.

Friday 18th November is for healthcare professionals and Saturday 19th November for patients and carers.

We would like to invite doctors and nurses to be aware of both days and inform patients about the Living with MPDs day on Saturday 19th November.

Registration is now open and places are limited
Early registration is advised

Endorsed by: NCRI and MPD voice
We are also grateful to pharmaceutical sponsorship
